

AREIA ADVISERS

INTERIOR DESIGNER

Job Overview

We are hiring a talented Interior Designer & Decorator

Areia Advisers offers a tailor-made property search service in Portugal. Passionate about real estate, Portugal and its art of living, we naturally love what we do and our clients sense it. Dedicated to our buyers, our 360o service covers the entire buying process, from the study of the project to the handing over of the keys. This way, our international clients will find - in all simplicity - the ideal property at the right price, whether they want to settle in Lisbon or by the sea.

Areia Interior Design - design and art of living at the heart of your real estate project.

There is a natural link between real estate, decoration, design and art. Whether our clients are buying a new or an old residence, we accompany them by overseeing your interior design project. Through a unique access to a local network of professionals whose common denominator is a pronounced taste for the art of living, architecture and decoration. We create homes fitted to their lifestyle and personality. We collaborate with some of the best local artisans in Portugal to design high-end custom-made furnitures matching the art of traditional Portuguese craftsmanship with contemporary design.
